ORDER

On January 14, 2004, the Court treated pro se Claimant's belated response to its order granting summary judgment, as a motion for reconsideration, and provided Claimant with additional time to respond to said motion. (Tab 32). On February 5, 2004, Claimant filed a response to the motion claiming that he had been promised by someone that in exchange for a guilty plea to state drug charges the federal forfeiture complaint would be dismissed. (Tab 33). The Government has filed a reply. (Tab 34). It is clear that Claimant has provided no admissible evidence of a valid promise to dismiss the forfeiture action in return for his plea of guilty to state drug charges. Therefore, Claimant's motion for reconsideration (Letter, Tab 33) is DENIED. The previous stay of the execution of the judgment in this case (Tab 31) is LIFTED and JUDGMENT is ENTERED in favor of the Government.

SO ORDERED, this 2nd day of November, 2005.
